

CME-CPD Accreditation

Accreditation Statement and Credit Designation for the 23rd WPA World Congress of Psychiatry, 2023

European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (UEMS/EACCME)

The 23rd WPA World Congress of Psychiatry is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS): www.uems.eu

The 23rd WPA World Congress of Psychiatry is designated for a maximum of, or up to, 23 European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

American Medical Association (AMA)

Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists and the American Medical Association, physicians may convert EACCME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at <https://www.ama-assn.org/education/ama-pra-credit-system/agreement-european-union-medical-specialties-uems>

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Live educational activities, occurring outside of Canada, recognized by the UEMS-EACCME for ECMEC credits are deemed to be Accredited Group Learning Activities (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal

College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. For more information, visit: www.royalcollege.ca/rcsite/cpd/providers/international-accreditation-agreements-e

Educational Objectives

After attending this event, participants should be able to:

- Address their specific needs while adhering to their Continuous Professional Development (CPD) plan.
- Engage in discussions regarding the current state of global psychiatric care and explore innovative approaches to treating individuals with substance abuse.
- Analyze the latest advancements in neuroscience and understand how they can be applied to evidence-based clinical practices in psychiatry.
- Examine the role of psychiatry in the prevention of suicide and contribute to discussions on effective strategies in this area.
- Review the most recent achievements in clinical and translational research related to mental disorders.
- Foster productive discussions and knowledge exchange among international psychiatrists and researchers to further develop individual expertise.

- Stay updated on the latest research outcomes concerning the impact of COVID-19 on mental health professionals.
- Discuss recent research findings on early intervention in psychiatric disorders, contributing to a comprehensive understanding of this approach.

Target Audience

The target audience includes international, regional, and national psychiatrists and specialists from related disciplines including primary care doctors. The audience will include senior and early-career psychiatrists and other professionals. Each will benefit from the information and discussions, as we will cover clinical decision-making planning and policy matters. Because of the diverse, clinically focused educational offering, participants are able to tailor the curriculum to meet the needs of international clinicians of all levels of experience.
